

ROBERT M. HOCKENHULL PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY CEREBRAL HEMORRHAGE CAUSED DEATH OF BANKER THURSDAY NIGHT

Head Pains Annoyed Him While Attending a Picture Theater and Death Soon Followed After His Return Home—Identified With Local Banking Interests Since Boyhood—Member of One of the Oldest Jacksonville Families.

Death came very suddenly Thursday night at 10:30 o'clock to Robert McMackin Hockenhull, long one of the most prominent citizens of Jacksonville. Mr. Hockenhull was at his desk in the Ayers National bank as usual yesterday and in the evening with Mrs. Hockenhull attended a picture theater. While there Mr. Hockenhull complained of a pain in his head and after his return home went immediately to bed. The pain in his head continued, suddenly became acute and in a few moments' time his life had gone out. Before the end came Mrs. Hockenhull had summoned Dr. F. A. Norris, and he reached the home soon after 10:30. Life was extinct when the physician arrived and examination proved that death was the result of cerebral hemorrhage. Dr. Norris stated last night that for two years Mr. Hockenhull had not been in good health, but his condition had at no time occasioned him special concern.

A Native of Jacksonville. Robert McMackin Hockenhull was the son of Robert and Matilda Hockenhull and was born at the old family home on Grove street in December, 1857. As a boy he attended the public schools and afterward graduated from Illinois college in the class of 1879. Very soon after completing his college course, Mr. Hockenhull took a position in the banking house of Hockenhull, King and Elliott, which was at that time controlled by his father, the late Robert Hockenhull. Subsequently the institution became the Hockenhull and Elliott bank, and with passing time Robert M. Hockenhull became the vice president. He held that position for a number of years, taking an active part in the direction of that very strong banking institution. In 1908 he sold his holdings in the Hockenhull and Elliott bank and became a vice president of the Ayers National bank. He continued to serve in that capacity until 1910, when the control of the bank passed into the hands of M. F. Dunlap and Andrew Russell. He was again re-elected to the office of vice president and has been chosen at each succeeding election of officers for a like position since that time.

Banker Nearly Forty Years. In experience, Mr. Hockenhull ranked as one of the oldest bankers in Jacksonville as he had been continuously in that business for a period of thirty-six years. Since 1888 a date very early in the history of Jacksonville, the Hockenhull name has been prominent in the business life of Jacksonville and it is a name which has always stood for the highest and best business principles. Robert M. Hockenhull did much to maintain the good name established by his father. He was a business man of sound judgment and keen perception. He was always classed as something of a conservative in business and came to be a man whose judgment was often sought not only in banking affairs but in the general realm of business. He kept himself posted upon general financial and crop conditions and all his private business affairs were directed with a judgment based upon an accurate knowledge of conditions. For an extended period Mr. Hockenhull owned the drug store on the East Side of the square which he subsequently sold to Coover & Shreve. He was the owner of the Hockenhull building on the East Side of the square and had other large holdings.

Showed Generous Spirit. In his dealings with customers and friends and in public matters generally Mr. Hockenhull's conduct was marked by fairness and generosity. He gave liberally to various causes and in many ways is entitled to praise as a public spirited citizen, one who constantly had the welfare of Jacksonville at heart. As a young man Mr. Hockenhull became a member of the First Presbyterian church and subsequently of State Street Presbyterian church, serving as an elder in the latter society for a number of years. Musical talent made him an especially valuable member of the church and for a long period he gave his services freely in the church choir subsequently singing at Congregational church. There was frequent demand on Mr. Hockenhull to sing at funeral services and on various public occasions, and the broad generosity which characterized him in other matters was true again. He took an active part in a great many concerts given for charitable purposes and at no service when asked was he found wanting.

A certain definite dignity always marked Mr. Hockenhull's manner but with it there was an approachableness, the evidence of a kindly spirit which placed him upon friendly terms with both old and young, with men and women in all the walks of life.

Mr. Hockenhull was married October 22, 1879 to Miss Ida May Weagley, daughter of the late Dr. S. G. Weagley, and their home for the greater part of their married life has been at 1033 West State street where Mr. Hockenhull's sudden death occurred. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Virginia May Henning, wife of H. B. Henning of Albuquerque, N. M. He leaves also three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Halsted of San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. Jane Hockenhull Hook, Belchertown, Mass.; Mrs. Sarah Hockenhull Harsha, Tremling, Colo.; John Nelson Hockenhull, Henderson, New York.

No announcement of the funeral can be made until a message is received from Mrs. Henning.

ORCHESTRA MUSIC OVER TELEPHONE. Cincinnati, O., July 22.—Music by the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra playing in this city will be transmitted over the telephone to San Francisco tomorrow. It will be Cincinnati Day at the exposition, and the official representatives of the city will be on the receiving end of the long wire to hear the music and dedicate the transcontinental telephone line.

HANGING IN GEORGIA. Quitman, Ga., July 22.—Jack Miller, convicted of killing his father-in-law, will be hanged here tomorrow. The crime was one of the most revolting ever committed in this section. The victim was Jack Edwards. A motion was made last month for a new trial, but it was withdrawn. Judge Thomas sentenced Miller on July 10 to die by hanging July 23.

THREATENS EXPOSURE UNLESS FREED. Pittsburgh, Pa., July 22.—Threats that he will disclose the "house of mystery" which involves men and women high in business and social affairs if he is not freed, Dr. C. C. Meredith, now serving a five year sentence in connection with the death of a woman, is fighting for freedom. A rehearing of his case is set for today before the partition board. The first appeal for pardon was made by friends last December but it was refused.

DECATUR WINS TEAM SHOOT. Decatur, Ill., July 22.—Decatur won the five-men team shoot on the closing day of the Central Illinois trapshooters' tournament today, breaking 119 out of a possible 125. Springfield was second with 114.

The late Robert M. Hockenhull.

WILSON TO HEAR OF CONDITIONS IN MEXICO

RED CROSS MANAGER WILL REPORT TO PRESIDENT TODAY

Executive Will be Told Matters are Even Worse Than When He Issued His Last Warning to the Military Factions That They Must Compose Their Differences.

Washington, July 22.—Chaotic conditions in Mexico which led Red Cross officials to practically abandon non-combatants will be pictured to President Wilson tomorrow by Brig. General C. A. Devol, general manager of the Red Cross, Ernest Bicknell, national director, and Miss Mabel Boardman, member of the central committee.

Gen. Devol to Make Report. General Devol, who went to Mexico to direct the relief work, will report to the president the situation he found and his inability to secure any kind of agreement between the various leaders to facilitate the task of feeding starving Mexicans.

Technically the subject will be taken up tomorrow with Mr. Wilson in his capacity as president of the red cross. All information given, however, will be utilized by him in his study of the Mexican question as president of the United States. He will be told that conditions are even worse than they were when he issued his last warning to the military factions that they must compose their differences.

Most Have Agents at Vera Cruz. Diplomatic advances reaching Washington from Mexico today said General Carranza had given notice that he would not receive communications from or transmit business with foreign governments which have no diplomatic agents accredited to his government at Vera Cruz.

Enforcement of such an order practically would cut off the Carranza government from further communication with all the foreign nations which have ministers resident in Mexico City. It would not, according to the information received, sever his informal relations with the United States government as Carranza is understood to regard Consul Silliman at Vera Cruz as a properly accredited agent.

General Carranza's Washington agents tonight said they had no advice of any such action on the part of their leader nor had they heard that it was in contemplation. The report created interest and surprise in official and diplomatic circles, particularly in view of the general understanding that foreign governments were awaiting action by the United States toward Mexico before recognizing any government in the country.

Although present conditions in Mexico are being given serious consideration by the Washington government, it became known tonight that no decisive action is in contemplation by the administration in the immediate future despite the fact that the president and Secretary of State Lansing have cleared the foreign relations desk for the time being with the dispatch of the third note to Germany regarding submarine warfare. In official quarters the opinion prevails that the military situation in Mexico just at this time is too uncertain for any new step on the part of the United States and the outcome of approaching conflicts between Carranza and Villa awaited with considerable interest.

Mexico City remains cut off from communication with the outside world and there have been no advances concerning the whereabouts of General Gonzales, who is believed to be seeking to give battle to a column of Villa troops under Generals Fierro and Natera somewhere in the vicinity of Pachuca.

The state department today took notice of protests against the occupation of Naco on the Sonora-Arizona border by Gen. Carranza's forces. A message was sent to Carranza at Vera Cruz calling his attention to and asking him to abide by the Scott agreement negotiated with his generals and those of General Villa, providing that no military operations should be conducted along the border where lives of Americans would be endangered.

INTERNED SAILORS GET FIRST TRAIN RIDE. Boston, July 22.—Fifty-seven Lascar sailors who have been held here a year on the German steamer Ockenfels, are on their way back to India. The men are British subjects, and they made up the crew of the German vessel when she interned. The first lap of the homeward journey was a rail trip to New York. It was the first time the Lascar sailors had ever boarded a railroad train, and it took much coaxing to get them aboard. Each of the superstitious Lascars were as hard to ward off evil spirits and protect them from this strange land-slip.

ALASKA PLANS SEMI-CENTENNIAL. Fairbanks, Alaska, July 22.—An exposition to celebrate the fifty anniversary of the acquisition of Alaska by the United States, is being planned here. The fair will be held in the summer of 1917, when the government railroad will be in operation, and excursions by water will bring visitors from Seattle and other Coast cities.

War News Summarized

There is an optimistic tone in the latest official statements issued from Vienna and Berlin respecting the series of vast operations now in full swing in the eastern theater of the war, particularly in Russian Poland.

There is little in the official statement issued from general headquarters at Petrograd to contradict the claims set up by the Austro-Germans but there are indications in all of the communications that fighting of a most desperate nature is in progress at various points and that the Russians, though falling back, are resisting with determination. In the drive toward the Polish capital the Russians have been pressed back on the Bloniec-Nadarny front, which they strongly occupy, together with the outlying defenses of Ivangorod. Berlin declares that the army of Gen. Von Woyrsch has driven the Russians into the fortress of Ivangorod to the southeast of the capital and is now closely investing the stronghold with its 12 forts—nine on the right bank of the Vistula and three on the left bank of that river.

To the north on the Naraw front heavy fighting has occurred in which the Cossacks have been engaged and in the neighborhood of Sokol the Russians claim to have cleared the right bank of the Bug of their opponents.

Between the Vistula and the Bug and in the Lublin region the troops respectively of Field Marshal Von Mackensen and the Austrian Archduke Joseph Ferdinand are reported to be making steady progress, the latter having stormed and captured Russian positions over a wide sector.

The Russians are said to be suffering from lack of artillery and ammunition and a shortage of officers to command their forces.

After weeks of minor engagements, the Austro-Italian campaign is assuming a degree of ferocity which puts it on a plane with some of the long drawn out and hard fought battles in the outer war centers. The Austrian offensive movement on the Isonzo front, with Gorizia as the larger objective, has developed in larger proportions and the losses in men are indicated by the fact that both Austrians and Italians have been obliged to bring up reinforcements.

France and Belgium are comparatively quiet places, for there has been little fighting of late along that front except with the heavy guns, which have not ceased their cannonade for any length of time since the war began.

PROBE ACTIVITIES OF SECRET MEXICAN RECRUITING AGENTS

Representative of U. S. Department of Justice Investigating Alleged Recruiting in Southern Colorado.

Trinidad, Colo., July 22.—Roy O. Sampson, a representative of the United States department of justice, today stated he was conducting an investigation into the activities of secret recruiting agents of Venustiano Carranza, Francisco Villa and Victoriano Huerta in southern Colorado. It has been reported that the men had been recruiting men for service in Mexico and had been attempting to purchase arms and ammunition for the various factions.

Sampson had explained that he had learned of the activities of the alleged Mexican agents in southern Colorado.

"I have not learned whether or not any men have actually been recruited," he said, "or whether armament has actually been shipped, but I am making a general investigation."

OFFERS SEGREGATION AS SOLUTION OF SOCIAL EVIL. SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—Walter J. Person, former chief of police of Oakland, offers segregation as a solution of the social evil in cities to the delegates to the ninth international purity congress here today.

He was refused a grace of five minutes when his allotted speaking time expired before he had completed his address. The end of his address was marked with a pattering of applause. B. S. Steadman, president of half a dozen elegants struggling to obtain the floor when he declared that segregation was a false solution of the social evil problem.

TO BUILD ADDITIONS TO PLANT. Youngstown, O., July 22.—President Thomas J. Bray of the Republic Iron and Steel company announced today that the company will build additions to its plant here costing approximately $1,000,000. These will consist of two open-hearth furnaces and four tube mills.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL. Fairbanks, Alaska, July 22.—An exposition to celebrate the fifty anniversary of the acquisition of Alaska by the United States, is being planned here. The fair will be held in the summer of 1917, when the government railroad will be in operation, and excursions by water will bring visitors from Seattle and other Coast cities.

MAY CALL OUT MILITIA TO QUELL DISORDERS

SHERIFF AT BAYONNE, N. J., CALLS
ON GOVERNOR FOR TROOPS

Adjutant General of New Jersey Is Ordered to Bayonne and On His Report Rests the Calling of Soldiers—Two More Are Killed in Riots.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Whether militia would be called out to preserve order was the question tonight in Bayonne, where two more men were killed today in fights between striking employees of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and armed guards, bringing the total deaths up to three since the inception of the strike. Sheriff Eugene Kinkead, who had worked earnestly to pacify the strikers, called on Governor J. F. Riedler for troops when he was jeered by crowds after the battle. Wilbur Cadler, adjutant general of New Jersey, was ordered to Bayonne and on his report rests the calling of the militia.

Commissioners to Arbitrate. A development tonight which may have the effect of helping to end the strike or at least bring a truce, was the acceptance by the strikers of an offer of the five city commissioners to act as arbitrators. The offer was made by Henry Wilson, commissioner of public safety. The strikers will present their demands for a 15 per cent increase in wages tomorrow and the latter will lay them before the Standard oil plant officials.

The lull which followed the serious disorder of yesterday in which one youth was killed was dissipated shortly before noon today when several hundred of the 1,500 strikers attacked the guards within the Standard plant. The guards replied to the showers of bricks, stones and clubs with volleys from their rifles and three men had been wounded seriously when the crowd retreated, after two futile attempts to approach the plant.

John Surgen, a former soldier in the Austrian army, was shot in the abdomen while leading this assault and may die.

Two Men Are Killed. The next and most serious attack was on the Tidewater Oil company's barrel works, a short distance from the Standard plant. It lasted a half hour. Two of the attacking party, Stanley Murheko, aged 29 and Nicholas Iwaszkis, aged 19, were killed by bullets and three others were injured seriously. The guards inside the plant stood their ground and after the attackers saw two of their number fall, they backed away. It was said that none of the guards were wounded.

Sheriff Kinkead then made an unsuccessful attempt to have the strikers disperse by a personal appeal but was hoisted and jeered. Later in the day guards within Tidewater works fired on a crowd of 150 persons outside the works and the latter replied with revolvers. No injuries were reported.

Police Rescue Man from Crowd. Some excitement was caused early tonight when persons in the crowd near the plants began fighting among themselves and a man suspected of being a guard was rescued by five motorcycle police. Examination at a hospital showed the man's condition to be serious.

There was an outbreak of fires around the plants today, one of which was believed to have been started by the throwing of burning oil soaked waste over the walls.

AGED ELEVATOR OWNER SHOTS HIS WIFE AND THEN KILLS SELF

WINTERSSET, Ia., July 22.—Miles Young, Sr., aged 70, one of the most prominent grain elevator owners in this section, shot and fatally wounded his wife, aged 60, at their home here this afternoon and killed himself with a second bullet. Mrs. Young was his second wife. She was just leaving the house for a series of afternoon calls when she was shot down. Despondency brought on by physical ill health is said to have been the cause of Young's act.

BRITISH TAKE SUKESH-SHEYUKH ON EUPHRATES RIVER IN ARABIA

LONDON, July 22.—The British have occupied Sukesh-Sheyukh on the Euphrates river in Arabia, according to an official report issued today and are now attacking the Turks, who have taken up a position below Nasiriyeh.

Reports of British defeats in Iraq are declared in the report to be unfounded.

Irak-Arabi lies mostly between the lower courses of the Tigris and the Euphrates and includes the city of Bagdad.

THOUSAND CARLOADS FROM ONE PEACH ORCHARD. Fordyce, Ark., July 22.—A record crop of peaches, totalling a thousand carloads, is being harvested at Highland, Ark. in the largest peach orchard in the world. The orchard contains about 5,000 acres, and 300,000 trees. The orchard is equipped with electric lights and a telephone system.

TEUTONS CONTINUE TO PRESS RUSSIAN ARMIES

MUSCOVITES ARE FORCED BACK TO BRIDGEHEAD POSITIONS

Attacks From North and Southeast Apparently Have Been Held up or Germans are Waiting to Catch Russians Should They Evacuate Capital.

LONDON, July 22.—The Austro-German armies continue to press the Russian forces defending Warsaw and while they have made progress at some points they have not as yet made any serious breach in the well fortified inner lines defending that city.

Press Ru's into Fortress. The Russians, it is true, have been pressed back to the bridgehead positions directly west of Warsaw and into the fortress of Ivangorod further to the southeast on the Vistula. But at these points they are probably in a better position to offer stubborn resistance to their opponents.

The two attacks that are being made from the north along the Naraw river by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and that which Field Marshal Von Mackensen is directing from the southeast, between the Vistula and Bug rivers, apparently have been held up, or the Germans are awaiting for an opportune moment to move forward and catch the Russian armies should it be decided to evacuate Warsaw. At any rate, the Berlin official statement does not claim any advance for Von Mackensen, while the report, although it states that the Russians have ceased their counter-attacks along the Naraw, does not mention any success on the part of Von Hindenburg.

However, should the Russians hold Warsaw it would surprise the military critics in the allied countries who have discounted the loss of the city, attacked from all sides by opponents possessed of superiority in guns and munitions. Grand Duke Nicholas, although able to deliver some stinging counter-attacks and inflict heavy losses on the Austro-Germans, must in the first place consider the safety of his armies, the loss of which would be much more serious for the Russians than retirement from the Polish capital and the territory around it.

Teutons Claim Successes.

In the region of Shavil, on the Dubissa river and on the Mariampol-Kovno road, the Germans claim a series of successes, but nothing is said of the fighting nearer Riga, for which city another German army is heading.

The Argonne and the Vosges still are the scenes of the severe fighting in the west. The accounts from the opposing sides are as contradictory as ever but it would appear that the French are the aggressors in the Vosges and have made some progress and the Germans have offset this by a partially successful offensive in the Argonne.

Italians Continue Attacks.

The Italians continue their attacks along the Isonzo, the battle for the conquest of Gorizia and the Carso Plateau assuming larger proportions and more men being engaged than in any previous battle on the Italian front.

The Italians claim to be making progress, while the Austrians consistently report that all attacks have been repulsed. A short official account issued tonight of recent fighting on the Gallipoli peninsula indicates that the engagements have been of rather a minor nature but have favored the allies.

MORGANTOWN SIGNS BAKER.

Ashville, N. C., July 22.—J. Frank Baker, former third baseman for the Philadelphia American league team, has been signed by the Morgantown club in the semi-professional Western North Carolina league, according to a dispatch received here tonight from Morgantown. The message said Baker would receive $50 a day for the remainder of the season.

MRS. OGLESBY BETTER.

Charleston, Ill., July 22.—The condition of Mrs. Richard Oglesby, widow of former Governor Oglesby, was slightly improved tonight after she had spent a day of restlessness.

As soon as her condition permits, Mrs. Oglesby will be removed to a hospital in Chicago where she will undergo an operation.

NEW NOTE MAY BE DELIVERED TODAY

U. S. Awaits Indications as to Reception of Document in Berlin

SPEAKS FINAL WORD

Repetition of Lusitania Disaster May Mean Convening of Congress to Consider Action

ENGLAND NOTE ABOUT READY

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The United States government before determining the next step in its general diplomatic policy, will for a brief period await indications from official quarters in Berlin as to the reception of the new note warning Germany that the loss of American lives through further violation of neutral rights would be regarded as unfriendly. The note, started on its way to Berlin late last night, probably will be delivered by Ambassador Gerard tomorrow. It will be given out by the state department for publication in Saturday morning newspapers.

Everywhere in official quarters it was pointed out today that the document speaks the final word on how the United States government would regard further transgression of its rights.

The general trend of comment was that the repetition of such a disaster as befell the Lusitania would mean the convening of congress by President Wilson for consideration of the action to be taken.

In the event that the status quo is maintained, however, and there are indications through official or unofficial channels that German submarines in future will conform to the rules of international law in saving the lives of Americans on unresisting merchantmen, President Wilson will take up very soon the situation that has arisen with Great Britain over interferences with American commerce by the allies.

Not to England Almost Ready. For several weeks a note has been practically completed, almost ready to be sent to the British government reiterating protest against deviations from international law in the operations of the order in council against commerce with Germany.

The note has not been sent because President Wilson has been unwilling to give the impression in Berlin that the controversy between the United States and Germany in any way could be committed on the progress of the American government's negotiations with other belligerents.

It became known today, however, that if there are indications that the new American note to Germany is received in a friendly spirit, and there appears no intention further to violate neutral rights on the high seas, the new dispatch, almost ready to be sent, will be dispatched probably within the next fortnight.

Data is being gathered at the state department, but the new note probably will not deal to any extent with specific instances, contending chiefly for the general principles involved with renewed insistence on modifications in the order-in-council to conform with what the United States regards as the accepted rules of international law. The recent filing of a legal writ announcing that "orders in council" and British municipal law do not affect the rights of American citizens under international law was the first step in the policy which the United States is pursuing to obtain acquiescence in its point of view.

Interest centered for the most part today in official and diplomatic quarters on the nature of the new note to Germany. A statement of its contents has become known to a cause widespread comment on the apparently determined position taken by the United States.

Make No Progress in Probe.

No progress has been made in the investigation of the case of the British liner Orduna at which a German submarine is alleged to have fired a torpedo without warning. No evidence has been received to establish beyond doubt that the torpedo was fired and until this is available it was said in official quarters the case probably would not be pressed. None of the American passengers were awake at the time of the attack and the state department, it is said, is reluctant to act on what might be construed as partisan testimony, such as the statements of the officers and crew of a British vessel. As yet no report has been asked from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, because a prima facie case has not been established.

INTERCITY TENNIS MATCH.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 22.—An interesting inter-city tennis match will be held here today, when four crack players from Fargo, N. D., will meet the best of the Twin City players. Aubrey Lawrence and his son Ray, M. C. Crawford, and D. A. Danner are the visiting quartet.

A TRIBUTE.

A friend of the late Mrs. Alice Taylor has sent the following lines for publication as she considered them especially applicable to Mrs. Taylor:

In the early watch of the morning,
Ere the stars had faded away
Or the sun had risen in splendor,
To welcome a bright fair day,
We heard a heavenly anthem
Ring out from the sky so clear,
From numberless hosts on golden harp.

Calling our mother dear,
Gladly she answered that loving call
And we folded her hands to rest,
Leaving her safe with the Master
she loved.

At home in the land of the blest,
Then dry your tears sad mourners,
Our mother is only asleep
And over the grave of our loved one

Jesus the watch will keep.
Look up where the sun is shining,
Look up where the day breaks fair,
For mother with outstretched bea-coning hands
Is waiting for us there.

Educational Facts.

In round numbers there were 22-000,000 persons enrolled in educational institutions in the United States in 1914, according to the Annual Report of the Commissioner of Education just issued. Of these over 19,000,000 were in elementary schools; 1,374,000 in secondary schools, both public and private; and 216,000 in colleges and universities. Close to another hundred thousand were in normal
schools preparing to be teachers, 67,000 were in professional schools,
and the remainder were scattered
through other types of institutions.
The teachers for this educational army numbered 700,000 of whom 566,000 were in public schools. In point of rapid growth the public high school still presents the most impressive figures; the enrollment
for 1914 is greater by over 84,000
than for the year before.

Country Life Conferences.

Whether the country churches are fulfilling their functions, whether they can aid in other than spiritual matters in developing a happier country life, and other questions of importance to rural communities
will be discussed at the Country Life Conference which opens soon
at College Park, Md., on the grounds of the Maryland Agricultural college. Agricultural colleges of several states are joining hands with prominent ministers in this forward movement. In addition to the conference, a school session for a week is provided. Several hundred ministers from the rural sections of Maryland are being taught the principles of rural sociology, economics and scientific agriculture, so that they may be in touch with all the phases of modern life in the country and be able to keep in the van
of progress so that their usefulness
in their communities will be greatly increased.

These country life conferences
bring excellent results in many localities but are of use particularly in farming communities where the residents do not place value on education and religious advantages,
nor follow progressive ideas in agriculture. In a community like those found in this country there is no need for such conferences for the people who live on the farms are more fortunately situated financially than the majority of those living in the towns and cities and keep just as fully abreast of the times.

Just a Year Ago.

A year ago tomorrow the ultimatum of Austria to Serbia was delivered at Belgrade. This note was the direct cause of the split between the nations of Europe which grew into the world's greatest catastrophe. The ultimatum was contained in a note of eleven articles demanding the punishment for those persons concerned in the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, and the suppression of Anti-Austrian propaganda. A reply was demanded, within forty eight hours of its date, which was the 23rd. The note was imparted to all the European chancelleries and Russia a year ago promptly ordered a partial mobilization of her troops on the Austrian border. The czar and the Russian Cabinet Council regarded the note as a challenge to Russia.

On July 25th, Serbia replied to the Austrian note, accepting eight of the articles which it contained.
The article charging guilt of Serbian officials was accepted, subject to proof. Another article demanding Austro-Hungarian participation
in police and judicial proceedings, was conditionally rejected. The demand for explanation of alleged Austro-Austrian utterances by Serbian officials was conditionally accepted. Serbia's reply suggested arbitration on the three articles in dispute.

The reply was considered unsatisfactory to Austria, and on the same day the Austrian minister left Belgrade. To heal the breach, Sir Edward Grey suggested that Germany, France, Italy and England adjust the differences between the two nations. Germany held that the matter was a local one, concerning neither Russia nor the rest of Europe, although France and Italy accepted the proposal. The whirlwind of war was already started and by the first of August it had drawn into conflict nearly all the great nations of Europe.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

San Francisco—A wedding on the high seas in the Far East has been chosen by Mrs. John D. Spreckels.
The wealthy society woman, who will wed Frank W. Wakefield of this city. The couple obtained their pas-ports two weeks ago, and bride-to-be is already in the Orient. The groom will leave this week, meet Mrs. Spreckels in the Far East and the couple will be married on the high seas. They will then tour the Orient.

Topeka, Kans.—Club life as a relief for farmers' wives from the humdrum existence in the rural sections, is the slogan of a new campaign to make every farmer's wife in Kansas a club woman. The idea is backed by Mrs. J. M. Miller, president of the State Federation. If women's organizations are beneficial, the farmer's wife most of all needs the clubs, she declares. The state-wide movement is the result of the success and example of the Osage County Federation, which was the first of its kind in the world,
composed mostly of farmers' wives.

Chicago—That science has at last found away to time the coming of Mr. Stork so that birthdays will be optional, is the claim of wealthy women of this city, who became mothers at Wesley Hospital. The appointment with the stork can now be made anytime within a range of two weeks, and old Mr. Stork no longer chooses his own time for dropping in. The system was put in practice by Dr. Charles B. Reed at Wesley Hospital, and the last hundred babies have arrived at the hour decreed by the mother rather than that decreed by the bird with the big beak.

New York—Louisa Thorp Smith,
now studying music in this city, has found a way to be friendly with her former husband, though divorced from him. She does not hesitate to travel with her former husband,
and takes her sister along as chaperone. The mere fact that they were unsuited as mates has not interfered with their great friendship.
Louis Alfred Smith, member of a wealthy Illinois family, first met Louisa Thorp when they were both music students in Chicago. They were married in 1912 and divorced
the following year in San Francisco.
Then they took a trip around the world with the chaperone sister, and agreed that in case either party married again the other one would attend the ceremony.

Seattle—A. J. Jarmuth, a prominent Alaska mining man, has secured a divorce here from his suffragist wife, Edith DeLong Jarmuth,
who is campaigning in New York.
He convinced the court that suffrage
work was taking up all her time.
In a deposition the suffragist leader declared she had always been kind to Mr. Jarmuth's children by his first marriage, and emphatically declared that she was to blame for the breaking up of the home.

San Francisco—In proportion to its population, this city pays more in mothers' pensions than any other city in the United States, according to Judge Henry Neil of Illinois, who arranged the great Mothers' Pension Congress which came to a close here today. Judge Neil is known as the "father of the mothers' pension system." He stated that this city distributed a trifle more than $300,- 000 during the past year to mothers who have dependent children. The congress was held at the Exposition,
and brought together many earnest
advocates of the mothers' pension law.

Minneapolis—Miss Viola Bow, the beautiful daughter of Alderman D.
C. Bow of this city, has ordered a baby. A blue eyed flaxen haired baby from a New York orphanage will be sent to her, with her father's consent. Although the foster-mother is only 19, she has no fears as to her ability to care for her ward, for she has managed the alder-man's household for the past few years.

Jackson, Miss.—Mrs. Margaret K.
Thompson, candidate for state librarian, is the first woman ever asked to deliver a political speech in Mississippi. She will make her debut as an orator on Friday at the Wool-men Springs picnic in Amite County.
She was postmistress of the House of Representatives, and has represented commercial bodies as a delegate to cotton conventions.

WITH THE SICK.

Mrs. George W. Hamilton of North East street is quite ill at her home.

Miss Gertrude Young, who was operated on at Passavant hospital several days ago and has been in a critical condition, showed some improvement yesterday.

Mrs. K. C. Leiter, who underwent an operation at Dr. Day's hospital Tuesday, is making gradual improvement in condition.
W. H. Ledford who is very ill at the home of his son, F. L. Ledford on W. Lafayette avenue was reported slightly better last night,
although his condition in the morning was quite unfavorable. He is 92 years of age and has always been a man of rugged constitution.
His son, Charles (Ledford) arrived from Atlanta, Ga., Thursday and F.
L. Ledford arrived from the northern part of the state last evening.

COUNTY JUDGES FORM ASSOCIATION

WILL COMBINE 20 AND 21ST
CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

Important and Interesting Meeting Held of Judges Yesterday—Various Topics Were Discussed and Visitors Given Auto Ride About
the City.

At the initial meeting of the judges of the Twentieth Congressional District held at the Court House yesterday it was decided to form an association of the county judges of the 20th and 21st Congressional districts. The officers, elected follow:

President—Judge W. E. Thomson, Jacksonville.

Vice President—Judge A. J. Duggan, Carlinville.

Secretary—Judge W. Y. Baker,
Mt. Sterling.

Judges Pogue, Nenshaw and Funk were appointed as a committee to make arrangements for the next meeting. The matter of forming an association of the two districts was presented by Judge H. W.
Pogue.

The judges who arrived in the morning held an informal discussion on the various matters and at noon took dinner with Judge Thomson at the Pacific hotel, while those arriving during the noon hour dined at the Dunlap hotel.

Afternoon Session.
In the afternoon, Judge W. Y.
Baker of Mt. Sterling of Brown county, spoke on the subject of "Sale of Real Estate to Pay Debts".
He gave many good points and a number of questions were answered
by him.

Judge Thomas Henshaw of Carrollton, Greene county, gave an interesting discussion of county court jurisdiction. He favors the extension of the jurisdiction to include all matters in litigation and favored having the court open at all times for trial of any matter the same as it is now open at all times
for the handling of probate business.

Judge F. C. Funk of Winchester, Scott county, spoke on "Instructions to Jurors". He favored the submitting of instructions in duplicate, one copy to be handed the opposing counsel, and the matter be settled before instructions are given to the jury. Judge Wm. E. Thompson of Morgan county adopted this plan, with a slight modification, and is well satisfied with it. Morgan county attorneys are getting used to this and are kindly disposed to it.

Judge Andrew J. Duggan of Car-linville, Macoupin county and Judge
Harry W. Pogue of Jerseyville, Jersey county, gave their views of the matter of instructions and quite a discussion was indulged in.

Judge W. E. Thomson brought up the matter of "Reports of Administrators and Executors" and many questions were asked and answered.
Loose leaf dockets and other matters pertaining to the work of county judges, were discussed.

Judge King of Roodhouse, formerly county judge of Greene county, and a number of the local attorneys attended, some asking questions and taking part in the discussions.

Through the courtesy of Attorney Worthington and Reeve, who obligingly furnished their autos, the visiting judges were shown about Jacksonville, including a trip to Nichols park. The visitors left, expressing themselves well satisfied with the day and the benefits received. One of the judges before noon expressed himself then as being well repaid for the trip by reason of information gained on one point.

THREE HURT BY ACCIDENTS.

Two accidents occurred in the Murrayville neighborhood Thursday morning and one Wednesday. Fred Still, aged 85 years, was knocked down by a runaway team belonging to Harry Rimbey, as he was standing by the elevator Thursday morning. He was bruised about the face and arms and suffered much from the shock. His condition was much improved last night and no serious results are anticipated.

Joseph Seal was thrown from a tender Thursday forenoon as the result of the tongue falling down, and thrown to the ground. He was rendered unconscious by the fall,
but did not suffer any broken bones.
He works for C. E. Strang.

Glen Covey, aged 10 years, fell from a horse and suffered a broken left arm. All the patients were treated by Dr. J. H. Spencer.

LEAVE FOR WEST.
Mr. and Mrs. George M. Spires,
Mr. and Mrs. Little daughter left
this morning for Rochester, Minn.
There Mr. Spires will spend some time at the Mayo Bros. hospital and if it is their judgment that an operation is advisable he will undergo it. Subsequently the family expects to go to Seattle, Wash. to live.

SIGNS OF CONFLICT.
A family residing in the west
part of the city was much surprised Thursday morning when one of the members went to the well in the yard to draw some water and discovered the marks of a bloody hand
upon the pump handle, on the spout
of the pump and drops on the platform surrounding. They have no theory to account for the blood stains.

MRS. ALICE A. TAYLOR'S FUNERAL HELD AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Many Gathered to Honor Memory of Woman Who Had Been So Long Active in Religious Work — Elders Conducted Service in Absence of the Pastor.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Alice A. Taylor was held at Central Christian church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Taylor had been a very active member of this church and there was a large attendance at the service held in her memory. As Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of the church, is away on his vacation, the services were conducted by W. S. Rice and George H. Harney, who are elders of the church. This arrangement, as was true of other details of the impressive service, was in accordance with the request of Mrs. Taylor, who knew that her life was soon to go out and that the pastor of the church was out of the city. Her request was influenced, too, no doubt, by the fact of her long association with these church officials. Music for the service was supplied by Miss Marie Finney, Miss Cora Graham, Mrs. Wallace Brockman, Mrs. J. H. Campbell, Messrs. T. H. Rapp, W. H. J. Moore, Philip Reid and W. C. Gill, with Miss Alice Mathis at the organ.

Mr. Harney, after the singing of a hymn, read appropriate passages from the Bible and also read a brief sketch of Mrs. Taylor's life. In referring to her death, Mr. Harney said: "My friends, we come together today to pay our tribute of honor to a life to which we can add nothing. It is not necessary for me to bear testimony to the record of this life, for this assemblage of Mrs. Taylor's friends and these beautiful flowers give more eloquent testimony. The details of this service today, the hymns that have been sung, were all arranged in accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Taylor. I had known her for the past fourteen years, for our acquaintance began as soon as I became a resident of Jacksonville and associated with this church. She was one of the charter members of the Ladies' Aid society and had served as its president for several terms. She was also a charter member of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions and also of the Bethlehem Bible class. When this class united with others, she had charge of the devotional exercises, and although she lived in a part of the city remote from the church, it was characteristic of her that she was always on time for the Sunday school service. She was a woman who was faithful in all the duties of life and she had a strong missionary spirit and was interested in the spiritual welfare of those near at hand and those far away. Her devotion to all the interests of the church was remarkable, and today I suggest to you when any dark time of discouragement comes that you remember the courageous spirit of this our sister who is no more. I especially do not need to pay tribute to Mrs. Taylor in a personal way, for you who were her friends and neighbors know the kindly spirit that actuated her at all times. Today we do not believe that she is dead, but rather that the years spent with us have but prepared her for that other life."

In his brief remarks Mr. Rice said: "It does not seem meet that we should pronounce any special eulogy over Mrs. Taylor, for she needs none. Yet we cannot let this occasion pass without giving some expression to our feelings about her, and we can say with all truthfulness that a good woman has gone. No higher tribute could be paid than that simple statement. Goodness in life brings its own reward, and when we can say truthfully that a person is good we have exhausted the vocabulary. Mrs. Taylor had that best of ideals of useful service, and she was happiest when she was working for other people. She fully understood how to render that service which thinks not of self. As I have talked to the children of our departed sister I have noticed how they loved to refer to the things which were dear to her. I might eulogize this life with many words, but her deeds will live long after the words have been forgotten, for it is true of good lives that their works do follow them. Who can estimate the influence of a good life, who can measure the accomplishments of one who with willing spirit meets the duties of everyday life and who, when the journey is done, is entitled to the praise of 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful in a few things; I will make thee ruler over many.' It has been truly said that 'No man liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself.' So real goodness in life remains long after people have gone on and spoken words have been forgotten. From long knowledge of Mrs. Taylor's life and character I know that she was always self-sacrificing, a good, prudent, noble woman whom we honored during her lifetime and do honor now that she is no more with us. And for you who mourn especially there is comfort in the language of the Apostle Peter when in one of Christ's dark hours his disciples seemed to be leaving him, he said: 'Will ye also go away?' and Peter replied: 'To whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life.' The apostles could go to Christ for aid and comfort, and we today can go to the Book that He has left us, for His word abides and gives comfort and strength for every one of life's conditions. For I am persuaded that neither life nor death, nor principalities, nor powers shall be able to separate us from the love of Christ Jesus." Mr. Rice then offered a prayer and after another song the church service closed and the funeral cortege moved to Jacksonville cemetery. There Elder G. H. Harney conducted the committal service and Mrs. Taylor was laid to rest in a grave made beautiful with flowers.

The floral offerings were in charge of Mrs. Frank Hamm, Mrs. J. L. Snyder, Mrs. Alma Walker and Mrs. Edna Craig. The bearers were E. D. Pyatt, R. L. Pyatt, J. R. Watt, H. C. Clement, W. J. Moore and W. T. Clarkson.

Among those here to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. John Cole, Monticello; David Wilson, Mrs. Mayne Elliott, of Virginia; Mrs. Harry Walker, White Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taylor, Pekin; Harry McCarty and Mrs. Lou McCarty, Palmyra, Mo.

MORTUARY

Hackman.

Walter Albert Hackman, a former resident of Jacksonville, died Thursday morning at 3:05 o'clock in Peoria, after an illness of short duration.

He was born in Jacksonville and was married in 1901 to Miss Nellie Milsagle of this city. After his marriage he moved to Peoria where he has since resided. He followed the occupation of a carriage painter. He had been a member of the Presbyterian church for several years and belonged to the Modern Woodman.

He was the son of John F. Hackman and Fruza Hackman. The mother survives, also his wife and two children, Aletha and Harry, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Cully, Miss Mary Hackman and Miss Elizabeth Hackman, all of Jacksonville.

The remains arrived in Jacksonville over the 8:28 Alton train and were taken to the residence of his mother, 504 North Diamond street. His mother and sister Elizabeth were with him at the time of his death and accompanied the remains here.

Funeral announcements will be made later.

INDIAN WARFARE ON PLAINS RECALLED

THOMAS MACMILAN, LONG TIME NEWSPAPER MAN, IN REMINISCENT MOOD.

Writes Letter for Press Club Paper
Giving Thrilling Details of Indian Campaign—Went With Troops as Inter-Ocean Correspondent—
Some War Stories Never Before
Published.

A recent issue of Scoop, the weekly paper published by the Press Club of Chicago, contains a letter from Thomas C. MacMilan, who is well known in this city. He was for many years, while editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, a trustee of Illinois College and a frequent visitor here. Mr. MacMilan's letter gives interesting data about early newspaper days in Chicago but is principally devoted to recalling incidents of Indian warfare in 1875 and 1876 when as an Inter-Ocean representative he had accompanied the government expedition against the Indians. The letter follows:

Thomas C. MacMilan began his newspaper work on the Inter-Ocean in 1873, as a member of the city staff under city editor James Chisholm, and continued in it for many years, during which he acquired considerable distinction as a capable writer in many departments. He was sent to the Indian war in which General Crook put down the last important frontier trouble. John Finerty represented the Times in that campaign. The two were close friends. Tom finally quit the game to enter politics, and after serving in the state legislature was appointed clerk of the United States District Court for the northern district of Illinois, a position he still holds. He writes The Scoop this letter:

La Grange, Ill., July 12, 1915.—The article in The Scoop of July 3, by Michael L. Ahern in which are related many interesting reminiscences of old Chicago newspaper men, recalls some memories of bygone times and people that may not be generally known to the writers of today.

One of the most picturesque Chicago men of a third of a century ago was John F. Finerty. He was as big in heart as he was in body; a dragoon with a pen, a soldier with a writing-pad, witty and eloquent as the race he belonged to, one who never measured service where it was for a friend, and who never showed his heels to a foe.

For a time he was on the local force of The Tribune. The late Martin Russell was then on the editorial staff of The Times, with Wilbur F. Storey in his prime. Mr. Russell was the regular Chicago correspondent of the New York Herald. In anticipation of the National Republican convention of 1880 the "third term" movement was a very much alive issue. Mr. Bennett, of the Herald, had sent out instructions to his correspondents over the country to interview leading editors of all parties on the subject. Mr. Russell received a wire to "set an interview with Wilbur F. Storey" but of course could not interview his own chief. He therefore turned over the matter to Finerty. As nearly as I can now recall it this was John's version:

Interviewing Mr. Storey.

"Mr. Storey, on this occasion I represent the New York Herald, and I have come to—"

"Sit down!"
He sat.

"The Herald instructs me to ascertain for publication your personal views on the 'third term' movement, and also the attitude of The Times on—"

"Well, if you want to learn my views and the policy and attitude of The Times on 'third termism,' you'd better read the editorial page of my paper during the past six months."

"I think, Mr. Storey, I know what have been your views as expressed in the columns of The Times during that period, for I have been a close reader of your editorial page, but—"

"O, you do know my views on third termism as published in The Times, do you? That's good! I'm glad to hear it! For if you know all that, and can tell from what has appeared in The Times on that subject what opinions I hold, you know a—"

"Slight more than I do! Good-day!"

Colonel Finerty was always a favorite of Mr. Storey. He had great admiration for the soldierly dash and abandon of the frank and fearless and gallant writer. When the Sioux troubles had blazed out on the Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska and Montana border in 1875-6, he detailed Finerty, who was then on the local staff of The Times to go to the frontier and represent his paper with one of the three United States army columns organized to take the field against the hostiles. General Terry commanded the troops operating from the northeast, having Custer's regiment under him; General John Gibbon those from the northwest, and General Crook from the south.

Gen. Crook becomes anxious. I had accompanied the Government expedition in 1875 through the Black Hills for the Inter-Ocean, and in February and March, 1876 had made Fort Laramie my headquarters during the winter campaign against Crazy Horse, in the Powder River expedition. In April 1876, I was again detailed to join General Crook's command at Fort D. A. Russell, near Cheyenne, and to proceed with them as far and as long as there was likely to be anything interesting. General Crook's army was selected by about a dozen correspondents, for he was an experienced Indian fighter, and it was believed he would have the heavy end of the campaign while the trouble lasted.

A few days after I reached Fort Russell, Finerty joined the command. During the campaign, and while I remained in the field, which was until after the Custer massacre, he and I were in the same mess, slept in the same tent, rode daily side by side, sent in our dispatches by the same couriers, and were, to my constant satisfaction, most intimate. Our troops had had a number of encounters with the hostiles, the most important being that over the Rosebud on June 17.

It was after the combat on the Rosebud, and before we had heard of the death of Custer, that General Crook became anxious. He had had no word from either General Terry or General Gibbon. The converging columns were to co-operate, yet we could not get in communication with either command. Nor could General Crook locate the confederated enemy who had so vigorously attacked us on the Rosebud, and who, but for the General's superb leadership, would have wiped us from the face of the earth, as they did Custer, eight days later, on the Little Big Horn.

The General therefore, detailed Lieut. Frederick W. Sibley of the Second Cavalry, with twenty-five picked men and two guides, to locate the hostiles if possible, and to ascertain their strength and disposition. The trip made by this little band came to be known as "Sibley's Scout." This young officer was a splendid type of soldier—a worthy son of a fine soldierly sire. The two guides who accompanied him were Frank Gruard, who had for five years been a captive of Sitting Bull's band, and Baptiste Poirier, a life-long borderer. Both were experienced, capable and courageous. Both have since gone on the "long trail."

When Finerty heard of the proposed "scout" he at once personally applied to General Crook to be allowed to accompany the party. After considerable hesitation and with much reluctance, the desired permission was given. I am sure the General would not have consented to have any other correspondent but Finerty go with Sibley. But then, who could have refused Joan such a favor, or for that matter, any favor which involved danger or adventure?

I cannot pretend, at this distant day, to write or recall the details of that hazardous "scout." If I were able, it would read like a chapter from Fenimore Cooper. However, I have still some of my field note-books, and give in general what they now dim with the passing years and my memory remind me of.

There were twenty-nine men all told in the little company. All were well mounted; they had a good supply of ammunition for their carbines; they had only what they carried on their persons in clothing; and each man had his ration in his haversack. Our permanent camp was at or near the site of the present thriving town of Sheridan.

Encounter'd Sioux Band.

For a time the adventurers, who set out one afternoon, kept close to the old Bozeman rail, which skirted the foothills on the eastern rim of the Big Horn Mountains. Something like fifty miles northwest of our Big Goose Creek camp they came in touch with a strong Sioux war-party. It would have been sheer madness to attempt to stand off such a force. The Indians saw their advantage, and used every bit of their skill and strength to surround Sibley's troopers. Before their cordon was completed, however, Gruard and Poirier had led the soldiers out of the net, up into the nearby heavily timbered mountains. They were not a minute too soon. In the course of their rapid retreat, they struck a trail that bent up in the direction of the snowy range. In the running fire that accompanied this race there was some close and sharp shooting. Among the Indians, killed during this run was a daring chief named White Antelope, who ranked near Crazy Horse among the Sioux fighting men. A smart gallop of several miles brought the troopers to where they could wind their horses and where they might deliberate what to do next. They were however, given little opportunity for consultation, for the alert enemy once more began their circling scheme. The fight was renewed with vigor on both sides. It became evident that, with the number and cunning of the Indians, there could be only one end if the troopers remained where they were, and that was annihilation. The guides advised Sibley to abandon the horses, and to seek safety in flight on foot through the intricacies of the mountain fastnesses toward the only way open—that is southward. Before resorting to this last expedient, it was decided to fire several volleys at the Sioux, and then to steal for shelter through the timber and among the rocks, and whatever else of cover the country afforded. The rough surface was favorable. After pouring rains of lead into their assailants, and leaving their horses as they stood, saddled and bridled, as if their riders were close by, the troopers scudded away as rapidly and as noiselessly as possible from the place. The ruse succeeded. The hostiles did not discover, until the troopers had put quite a distance between themselves and their enemies, how they had been deceived.

In a Terrific Storm.

To add to the dangers and dreariness of their retreat, the troopers, as their march was enveloped in a terrific mountain storm of rain and hail and wind. Giant trees were uprooted and fell crashing all around them. They were drenched and cold and hungry. At times it seemed that the exhausted men could not drag themselves another rod. But encouraged by their dauntless leader, and urged on by the guides, and with the condition that if they were not shot, their fate as captives would be a thousand times worse than death by bullets, they toiled forward. The storm dreadful though it was, was not without its compensation, for it completely obliterated their trail, and prevented their pursuers from being able to trace them.

After countless adventures and indescribable hardships and a narrow escape from another large roving Sioux war party, they made their way back to the upper waters of Big Goose Creek. This was running, bank full and breast high, with the torrents from the recent storm, and chilled with melting snow water. Early one morning they forced it and arrived in camp utterly worn out and tattered company. But not a man had been lost.

It is scarcely necessary to say that Finerty was the hero of the group of correspondents. Sibley and his men and guides were enthusiastic in their praise of his courage and endurance and cheer during all their thrilling experiences. General Crook in his report to General Sheridan, recorded his high appreciation of Finerty's conduct. And we all rejoiced in the honors thus finely and frankly bestowed upon our associate by every man and officer in the command.

HAVE RETURNED FROM WESTERN TRIP.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. McCarty and children and Mr. Abbott have returned from a month's vacation which was spent in the west. The party visited in Denver, Colorado Springs and Manitou taking all of the side trips about Manitou. Their itinerary also included an automobile trip to Cripple Creek which probably is the highest city in the United States. They also visited Salt Lake City and Yellowstone Park. The trip was a delightful one in every particular and Dr. McCarty feels greatly invigorated by the outing.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation.

At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice.

"Mother's Friend" is an external application for expectant mothers. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitches of the limbs and so on.

Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 500 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over forty years. This is a fine record for such a special remedy and the grateful letters received to-day are just as appreciative as were those of years ago notwithstanding that methods are supposed to have greatly advanced. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

PEORIA WOMAN PRAISES REMEDY

Mrs. Tillia Conard Tells Remarkable Experience After Suffering for Months.

Mrs. Tillia Conard lives at 307 Morgan Street, Peoria. She suffered from stomach trouble for months. Nothing seemed to give relief. One day she visited a sister who resides in Bloomington, and upon urgent advice consented to try one bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy. This, in her own words, is the story of her experience—

"For a number of months I suffered terribly with pains in my stomach; would fill with gas and belch for an hour at a time. I had pains in my side which at times I thought would kill me. I was under the doctor's care for four months, but got no relief at all. One day while in Bloomington my sister persuaded me to take a bottle of your remedy. To say the results were wonderful would be putting it mildly. After the first dose my pain left me, my appetite improved, my skin became clear again and I felt like a new woman."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

We carry full line of repairs for all kinds of batteries, and are prepared to repair and charge all makes. Satisfaction guaranteed.

BRAVES TAKE EXCITING CONTEST FROM CHICAGO

BOSTON SCORES WINNING TALLY IN EIGHTH.

Zimmerman is Put Out of the Game For Protesting Too Strongly—Umpire Quigley Pitches Evers on Chest After Putting Him Out of the Game in Third Inning.

Boston, July 22.—Boston defeated Chicago in an exciting contest. In the eighth after the score had been tied in the fifth, Maranville scratched a hit and was safe at second when Zimmerman failed to tag him after taking Gowdy's grounder. Maranville and Gowdy pulled a double steal and when Whaling hit to Pierce, after a chase up and down the third base line, the Chicago pitcher threw wild to Bresnahan and Maranville score the winning run.

Zimmerman was put out of the game for protesting too strongly. Umpire Quigley punched Captain Evers on the chest after he had put him out of the game during the third inning for throwing sand around the batter's box. Evers being given a base on balls. Quigley claimed Evers stepped on his foot. The score:

POP GEERS PILOTS TWO TROTTERS TO VICTORY

VETERAN WINS TAVERN STEAK AND 2:17 TROT.

Both are the Sort of Races That Have Made the Name of Geers Famous Wherever the Light Harness Game is Followed.

Cleveland, O., July 22.—Thursday was "Pop" Geers Day at the North Randall track, the veteran piloting his trotters to victory in both the Tavern Steak and the 2:17 trot. Both were the sort of races that have made the name of Geers famous wherever the light harness game is followed.

In the Tavern Steak "Pop" had the mount behind The Guide, his own trotter. It was Geers' first appearance in the local classic and he won, taking the second and third heats. Ben Waite drove Lettie Lee, the first heat in 2:06 3-4, a record for the race. Fourteen horses were entered in this event, but five were dropped after the first time around.

In the 2:17 trot Geers gave the talent a rap by winning with St. Fresco. Stafford, the favorite, after winning the second heat, went lame in the third and couldn't come back. The Proof, a rank outsider, took the third heat by a nose but was easily beaten by Geers in the final.

"MORNING GLANCES" (By Gosh)

The Lewiston and Beardstown teams played a wonderful game Sunday. Beardstown won in the eleventh inning. The most wonderful thing about the game was the box score. According to the box score Beardstown had seventy-four put outs, thirty-three of them going to Bradbury the pitcher.

The Cubs and Braves played a wild and wooly game yesterday, the Braves winning by a score of 4 to 3. The umpires and the players evidently did agree on the decisions given. Zimmerman was put out of the game for protesting too strongly on decisions while Umpire Quigley not only put Evers out of the game but was so rude as to punch him in the chest. Quigley claimed that Evers stepped on his toes. We don't believe Jawny would do such a thing.

The White Sox played true to form yesterday and took two games from the Yanks. In the first game they won through loose fielding behind Shawkey while in the second bunched hits off Caldwell in the sixth was responsible for victory.

Happy Felch proved his worth when he got two bingles off Shawkey, one a triple. Fournier also got a triple. The double win put the White Sox back in second place.

The Cardinals and Superbas split even in a double header yesterday. The first game was a pitchers' battle between Smith and Sallee. Brookly scored the only run of the game in the eighth. In the second St. Louis batted the Brooklyn twirlers all over the field. The victims were, Coombs, Appleton and Douglas. They gathered sixteen hits off of the three pitchers. Hub Perdue pitched one of his old time games and held Brooklyn safe all the way. They made four hits and one run.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia broke even in a double header yesterday. The Reds won the first game while the Phillies won the second. Schneider tried to pitch both games. He won the first and probably would have won the second but for poor fielding. He was taken out and Lear and McKenry finished, Philadelphia winning by a score of 3 to 1. The Reds won the first 6 to 1.

Miner Brown held Baltimore to three hits Thursday and the Whales beat Baltimore 4 to 1. Knabe, manager of the Terrapins was put out of the game by Umpire Mullin for wrangling over a decision.

Astoria will be here again Sunday for a game with the Eagles. The Astoria team held the Eagles to a 2 to 0 score on their last visit. It looked like luck on the part of the visitors and the game Sunday should tell the tale.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

WHEAT DEVELOPS STRENGTH BASED ON BULLISH FOREIGN NEWS
Advance Is Not Well Maintained—Quotations Close Unsettled—Corn Finishes at a Gain.

Chicago, July 22.—Enlarged estimates of shipments that would be required by Europe led to a bulge today in the price of wheat, but the advance was not well maintained. Quotations closed unsettled, 1/2c off to 1/2c up, compared with last night. Corn finished at a gain of 1/4 to 1/2c, oats 1/2c down to 1/2c up and provisions with losses of 10c to 35c. Notwithstanding highly advantageous present conditions for the growth of domestic spring wheat and for threshing and moving the winter crop, the market soon developed notable strength, based almost entirely on bullish foreign news. The unpromising crop outlook in Great Britain, France and Italy was said on good authority to have made absolutely certain a prospect that the United States would be called upon more freely for breadstuffs than had of late been supposed. Hopes for a big yield in Canada were said to have disappeared. Difficulty in obtaining knowledge of the actual amount of export business done today, however, led to a bearish reaction in the wheat market after midday.

After the largest total mentioned was 800,000 bushels and this was not confirmed until speculative trading hours were over. A decided break in cash prices at Omaha as a result of the arrival of the first Nebraska wheat this season tended further to unsettle the market here in the last part of the day.

Corn showed firmness almost from the start. Cool weather, adverse to quick growth, was against the bears and it was said all the corn here and all brought to arrive in Chicago within the next 30 days had been sold for shipment. Active call from the seaboard lifted the July delivery of oats. Later options, though, were easy on account of hedging by holders of new grain.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—“I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book ‘Wisdom for Women,’ and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham’s Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life.”—Miss BERTHA A. PELOQUIN, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—“I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham’s Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it ‘Anemia and Exhaustion,’ and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham’s Vegetable Compound brought me out all right.”—Miss LAVINA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham’s Vegetable Compound.

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get mulified coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

CHARITIES CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD IN DANVILLE IN OCTOBER

Twentieth Annual Gathering Will Take Place On October 23 to 26—Governor Dunne to Be Among Speakers.

Danville, Ill., July 22.—Preparations were begun yesterday for the 20th annual State Conference of Charities, which will be held in Danville, Oct. 23, 24, 25 and 26. A. L. Bowen of Springfield, executive secretary of the Illinois Charities commission, conferred yesterday morning in the probation office, the court house, with a number of local people and a local executive committee was appointed as follows: Rev. G. H. Simonson, president; Miss Mabel Frazier, secretary; Rev. Selden C. Adams, R. A. Lakin, Mrs. Lincoln Payne, L. M. Vaughn and Miss Ellen Ledward. Geo. R. Tilden and L. M. Vaughn were appointed a committee of two to arrange for the place of meeting, which will probably be in a suite of rooms in the court house. Inasmuch as the conference here will be the 20th annual, Secretary Bowen is planning to make it epoch making in more ways than one.

Who Will Be Here.

He announced that it will bring to Danville Governor Dunne, the board of administration, the state charities commission, superintendents of all the state charitable institutions and a large number of those engaged in private and semi-private charity and social welfare work throughout the state. A number of eminent speakers will address the meetings.

One of the features of the convention will be a large display of the work done by the inmates of the various charitable organizations and many private organizations. On Sunday of the convention week the meeting will be held in some downtown auditorium. On Sunday evening mass meetings will be held in two or more churches. On Monday night Governor Dunne will address a mass meeting.

Sectional Conventions.

In connection with the state conference will be held the annual meetings of the State Association of County Home Superintendents, the State Probate Officers’ association and the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. At the gathering yesterday morning a number of these who attended suggested a number of topics which they believed should be discussed for the benefit of the Danville people who wish to attend. Among these were better co-operation and higher efficiency in the conduct of local charity workers, the visiting nurse proposition and the campaign against tuberculosis.

Secretary Bowen promised that these subjects will be placed on the program and that the best results obtained some where would be demonstrated, so that the Danville agencies may select what plans seem best adapted to their conditions. The conference will bring to Danville about 300 out of the city visitors, the purpose in the end is to interest the local public in the subjects under discussion. Secretary Bowen was exceedingly well pleased with the court house and after looking it over said it was admirably adapted to the requirements of the conference.

MEREDOSIA.

Thomas Hyatt leaves this week for Albia, Iowa, for a visit with his two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ayers attended the funeral of a relative in Peoria Sunday, returning Monday morning.

Mrs. John Beauchamp departed Saturday for Bushnell, where she will visit relatives.

Miss Merle Harshman returned Friday to her home in Hulls, after an extended visit with relatives and friends here.

Miss Lena Pfanninger returned home to Milton Monday on the steamer Peoria, after a month’s visit with her sister, Mrs. C. P. Hedrick.

Earl Hyde and Miss May Wilson left Saturday for a visit with friends in Griggsville.

Greeley Stewart and wife of Decatur are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomason visited with the latter’s brother near Jacksonville Sunday.

Rev. H. J. Peterson and wife of St. Clair are visiting friends in this city. Sunday evening Mr. Peterson gave a lecture at the Methodist church on the subject of Helen Keller which was very much enjoyed by all present. Mr. Peterson was at one time pastor of the German Methodist church of this city and Jacksonville and has many warm friends here.

The date for the Meredosia chautauqua this season is August 4 to 9. Some splendid talent has been secured and many are looking forward to it with interest.

J. W. Skinner and family of Jacksonville motored to this city Sunday and spent the day with Mr. Skinner’s mother, Mrs. Mary Skinner.

Miss Fay Skinner of Jacksonville is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

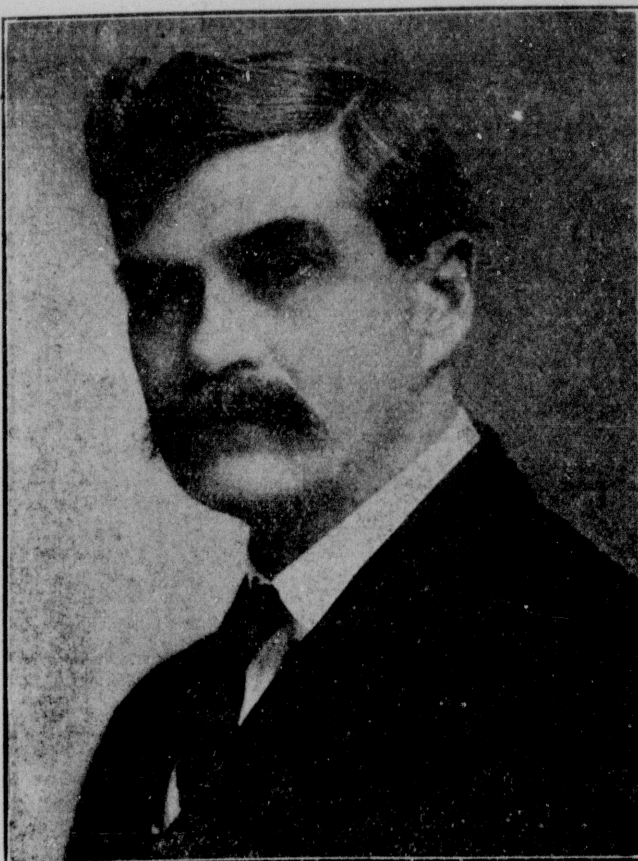

Miss Alleana Baur has for her guests this week her cousins, Ross and Maud Bingham, of Pittsfield.

Arthur Hale of Decatur visited Saturday and Sunday with his wife in this city.

Mrs. George James and Mrs. Charles James returned Saturday from Arenzville.

H. Kennitt visited Sunday in Jacksonville. He was accompanied home by his wife and daughters, Corlita and Cora, who have been visiting relatives.

CORNERSTONE OF NEW METHODIST CHURCH AT CONCORD WILL BE LAID SUNDAY JULY 25

THE REV. W. P. BOWMAN

Arrangements have been completed for the laying of the cornerstone of the new Methodist Episcopal church of Concord next Sunday afternoon at 3 o’clock. The services will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. P. Bowman. Rev. F. A. McCarty the district superintendent will make the address and lay the corner stone assisted by the foreman of the brick work, Mr. William H. Burrell of Albion, Ill.

There will be a copper box placed in the stone, containing a Bible, a discipline of the church, copy of the last issue of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, Jacksonville Daily papers, list of the membership of the church, official board, building committee, financial committee, Ladies’ Aid society, Woman’s Foreign Missionary society, a history and directory of the church at Concord and other documents of the church.

The Program.

The following will be the program: Opening Hymn—Congregation. Introductory Remarks—Rev. W. P. Bowman. Prayer—Rev. H. J. Floreth. Hymn by the choir. Reading of Scripture—Rev. C. N. Cain. Vocal solo—Othello Yeck. Address and Laying of the Corner stone—Rev. F. A. McCarty. Hymn by the choir. Benediction—Rev. J. W. Miller, Jacksonville.

History of Church.

Early in the 50’s the Methodists held services in a combination brick building, a school room below and an Odd Fellows’ hall above, preaching on Sunday mornings in the lower room. About 1859 they bought the old school house and converted it into a church. They did not keep it long, but sold it back to the village for a school house.

In 1856-7 they erected a brick building on the present site in the east part of town. Among those who were active in building this church were John M. Thompson and the Sanders brothers. This building was repaired and remodeled in 1906, Rev. T. A. Adams being the pastor. It has been a house of worship for the congregation for 58 years and the scene of many revivals.

Many of the notable pioneer Methodist ministers preached here and administered the sacraments of the church. Among them were Peter Cartwright, Peter Akers, John Newman, Hardin Wallace, James Leaton and many others.

The new structure was begun a few weeks ago and is now progressing under the efficient management of Charles Moreland of Toronto, Ohio, the foreman of the work.

“WILLYS-KNIGHT.”

The last word in the Automobile World is the “Wilys-Knight”—A Knight Motored Car, at $1,095, never before sold for less than from 3,000 to 5,000 dollars, and all brought about by the getting together of two of the world’s greatest manufacturers—Chas. Y. Knight and John A. Willys. Mr. Knight is the inventor of the Sleeve-Valve Motor, while Mr. Willys is the President of the Overland Motor Co. It had been said that the car could not be produced for anything like the price. But those two wise heads got together behind the Pyramids of Egypt, and there decided that in order to produce this wonderful car at the price, that it would be necessary to build 200,000 cars, which the Overland Company agreed to do, and have already bought the material, and are working night and day in order to be able to fill the flood of orders coming into their factory every day. “The Willys-Knight,” is the car everybody is talking about. It is the car that every member of the family will be proud of. The car with no engine trouble. The high quality car at low cost. There is not a family of the nobility of the East, but what some member of it owns a Knight Motored Car. And think of it, a Knight Motor in an Overland Car, and you have the very latest word in Motor Car Construction.

Priest & Claus have the agency for these celebrated cars, and are ready to show you, at their headquarters on South Sandy St., Jacksonville, Ill. The Company have promised them a car load of cars before Aug. 1st, and anyone wishing to see them before their load arrives will be taken to Springfield, free of charge, where they have them in stock.

Listen, prospective buyers: Now, as you have waited this long, take our advice and wait a few days longer, until these cars arrive, or if you can’t wait, come and see us and we will take you to where they are.

Respectfully,

C. N. PRIEST.

Social Activities

Observes Eleventh Birthday Anniversary.

Thursday was the eleventh birthday of Miss Frances Catherine Griswold, 600 West State street, and in celebration thereof dinner was served at noon to a merry company of girl friends. Misses Mary and Harriet Hall of Waverly were special guests.

Friends Gather with Mr. and Mrs. Bourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bourn entertained a few friends Thursday at their residence, 138 Howe street, and all enjoyed an evening with music as an especial feature. Miss Nettie Meek, accompanied by Miss Pauline Valentine, gave violin numbers and the girls' orchestra of the School for the Blind was heard with pleasure. Excellent refreshments were served. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hagan, Samuel Ragan, Miss Grace Hamilton, Miss Jennie Stafford, Miss Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meek and daughter, Nettie.

Congregational Picnic at Park.

Upwards of seventy-five enjoyed supper Thursday evening at Nichols park on the occasion of the annual Congregational church outing and picnic. Mrs. Truman Carter had in charge the committee on tables and the event as a whole was under direction of Eb Spink, Sunday school superintendent. Automobiles took the company to the park and also brought the merry-makers back shortly after 8 o'clock. Those who furnished cars were Arthur Taylor, George L. Merrill, Dr. Grace Dewey, E. E. Crabtree, James G. Strawn, Eb Spink, Dr. W. B. Young and Charles H. Ward.

Centenary Teachers Have Outing Thursday.

Teachers in Centenary M. E. Sunday school and their families partook of picnic supper at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening by the borders of Morgan Lake. After the meal there was music by John Kearns and the Sunday school orchestra stationed in the pavilion. Mrs. Claude Vail was chairman of the committee on preparation and Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe, Mrs. Frank Hamm, Miss Amanda Schildman and Miss Maude Brown, assisted. Albert C. Metcalf is superintendent of the Sunday school and Henry W. Muehlhausen, the able assistant.

Evening of Fun By Kewpie Klan.

Frolic and fun abounded on the north shore of Morgan Lake last evening when seventeen members of the Kewpie Klan and several guests partook of a picnic dinner, both delicious and abundant. On the success of the event the Klan may rest assured, for all seemed in harmony with the spirit of the occasion.

The invited guests numbered Miss Gladys Uzzell, Miss Jeannette Foreman, Miss Dora Conlee, Miss Lena Mollenbrock, Miss Dorothy Osborne, Miss Mabel Schofield, Miss Carrie Henderson, Miss Mayme Gorman, Miss Kathleen Walsh, Miss Nelle Grant and Miss Viola Jokisch.

Their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dyer were treated to a pleasant surprise at their home 1018 West Lafayette avenue Thursday evening. The occasion was the 40th anniversary of their marriage and a number of their friends and neighbors dropped in on them. It is needless to say that the worthy couple were greatly surprised but they soon recovered and made their self invited guests feel at home. The evening was spent in conversation and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer have resided north of the city for a great many years but about a year ago they removed to town and have a pleasant home at 1018 West Lafayette avenue.

Surprise Given For Mrs. Roscoe Bradley.

Mrs. Roscoe Bradley of 146 Caldwell street, was given a surprise Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday. All the guests came with well filled baskets and she was the recipient of a number of useful presents. The evening was pleasantly spent.

Party for Friends at Nichols Park.

Misses Ethel and Bertha Lucas gave a party at Nichols park Thursday evening, in honor of their guests, Misses Lillian Le Vine and Margaret Wilcox of Monmouth. The young people went to the park and took supper at 6:30 and tennis and boat riding furnished amusements after supper. Among those present were Misses Ruth Springate, Mayne Williams, Leola and Lillian Groves, Irene Hadden, Marguerite Strandberg, Leila Clearwater, Doris Thornton, the Misses Lucas and Miss Wilcox and Miss Le Vine.

Box Party for St. Louis Guest.

Miss Marie Wiswell and Miss Esther Davis were hostesses Thursday evening at a park picnic and box party in honor of Miss Mignon Morrow of St. Louis. Miss Wiswell's guest. From Nichols park the company went to the Grand Opera house. The sixteen young ladies partook of refreshments at Vickery's at the close of the performance.

FUNERALS

Davis.

Funeral services for Thomas Davis were held from the family residence on South Church street Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in charge of the Rev. F. A. McCarty. Suitable music was furnished by a quartette composed of Miss Cora Graham, Mrs. Wallace Brockman, Messrs. T. H. Rapp and W. W. Gillham. The flowers were in charge of Mrs. Oliver Hamm, Mrs. Edward Kastrup, Miss Mary Dewese and Miss Bates.

Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery and the bearers were: Ed Kastrup, O. H. Spaulding, W. W. Hanback, Terrell Massey, O. A. Hamm and John Petry.

GET YOUR CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS NOW

Subscription tickets for the Jacksonville Chautauqua are now ready for the subscribers. Call on the secretary, Mr. A. C. Rice, at the Farmers' State bank, for your tickets.

CONTRACT LET

Bids were opened at C. W. Buckingham's office Thursday for the erection of a residence on the farm of Clinton F. Corrington near New Berlin. There were a number of bidders among them contractors from New Berlin and Alexander. The contract was awarded to Scott P. Carter of this city. The plans call for an eight room house, modern in every particular and it is expected to have it ready for occupancy by the autumn. Mr. Corrington also has plans for the installation of an electric light plant. The plant will be run by a gasoline engine and storage batteries. He has a number of outbuildings on his farm and it is the intention to light these buildings as well as the residence with this plant.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

George Cain lost his pocketbook Tuesday night. He inserted an advertisement in Thursday's Journal. The same morning his pocketbook was returned to the Pacific Hotel before Mr. Cain was out of bed. He believes it pays to advertise and that the Journal is an excellent medium.

CAUGHT BY HOOK.

Cullen C. Riden suffered a small but painful accident Thursday night while fishing in Morgan lake. Catching his hand in the hooks of a "Gawwagale" wooden minnow, he was compelled to secure surgical relief.

TWO SILOS TO BE BUILT AT STATE SCHOOL FOR DEAF

New Basement Being Fitted Up at Institution—Combined Ice Plant and Storage Room at School for Blind.

Two new silos are soon to be erected at the State School for the Deaf. The last legislature appropriated $1,300 for this purpose. It is the hope of the management that the silos will be 16 feet by 60 feet. They have long been needed at the plant.

Work on Basement.
Workmen have been busy for several days fixing up the basement below the store room for the reception of a higher class of eatables. The floor is being concreted and the walls plastered. Fernandes and company has the contract for the work. On the premises the pavements are being thoroughly overhauled and put in good shape.

Moves Hydrant.
After many years of negotiations the hydrant, which has occupied a place in the institution grounds has been moved to the street by the city authorities. It was placed in its position when Woodland avenue used to extend on the ground. At the time of fire the fence was always torn down so that the fire department could reach the hydrant.

Work at Blind.
The work of erecting a combined ice plant, storage room and cold storage department at the State School for the Blind is in progress and the foundation has already been laid.

The house which is to be located in the rear of the main building is to be of brick and will be 22 feet by 32 feet and two stories high. The cold storage room is to be lined with a four inch thickness of cork which will add much to the effectiveness of the purpose for which the room is to be used.

JEWELER'S CONVENTION.
The annual state convention of Illinois Jewelers will be held in Quincy beginning next week. C. H. Russell, Dennis Schram and E. W. Bassett plan to attend but have not made certain arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during our recent bereavement; also for the many beautiful flowers.
Mrs. Thomas Davis and Family.

THRASHING WORK CONTINUES ALL OVER THE COUNTY.

Mower Used to Cut Wheat on Aaron Petelish Farm as Land Was Too Wet for Binder—L. B. Maul Relates Harvest Experiences.

The fair weather which has prevailed for a week has given Morgan county farmers some chance to catch up with their work and many are the farms where thrashing has been done or is in progress. E. L. Clark near Litchberry has just finished thrashing about 65 acres of wheat which averaged above thirty bushels. Yesterday the same outfit was at work on the Aaron Petelish farm where 100 acres is being thrashed. On this farm part of the land was so wet that it was impossible to use a binder. Instead the grain was cut with a mower and then raked up. This method makes more difficult work for the men who feed the separator but the results are the same as when the grain is in bundles.

L. H. Maul who lives in the same neighborhood says that this year is the first experience he has ever had in walking behind a binder instead of riding in the seat. He weighs something over 200 pounds and found that when he did not ride that the binder would move through the wet fields and otherwise the bull wheel would slip along and not move the machinery. When harvesting is done in this way the driver must throw the bundles by hand instead of with the lever.

In the Joy Prairie neighborhood thrashing was in progress yesterday on the L. S. Doane farm.

TOILET FACILITIES WILL BE CONSTRUCTED AT NICHOLS PARK

Work to Cost Several Hundreds of Dollars Will Be Commenced at Once—Water Works System Gives Good Satisfaction.

At a meeting of the Nichols park board last night it was decided to build toilet rooms, for both men and women at the park and other matters of importance to the board were discussed. Mayor Rodgers was in attendance, Dr. Carl E. Black, Edward Gause and members of the board.

It was the sense of the members that toilet rooms comparable in size and of a permanent character should be constructed. There will be a building for ladies consisting of twelve apartments and one for men of six apartments. The buildings will be placed south of the bridge. These buildings will be erected at once and a committee to secure bids was appointed composed of W. H. Anderson, Terrance Brennan and Joseph Gomes. A concrete vault will be built with septic tank. The entire cost will be several hundred dollars.

The members discussed the new water works system which has just been completed by Bernard Gause, and which gives good results. All the flower beds are completely surrounded by piping as well as connections made with the refreshment stand and aside from the advantages gained through the system it will be a great advantage in case of fire.

Mention was also made of the arrangements perfected for a water proof floor to be laid in the band stand so as to protect the electric machinery below. A Century Electric motor is used to pump the water, with a capacity of 2,000 gallons per hour.

NOTICE.
BEST QUALITY WHITE CORBURY VELVETS WITH TASSEL, ONLY 69c.

AT HERMAN'S.

REPAINTING PUBLIC LIBRARY.
The contract for repainting the interior of the public library building was recently let to Samuel Armstrong and he has several men at work on the job. The side walls and ceiling are to be painted in the colors they were originally as the board determined that no change in the coloring would be advisable. The entire work is to be finished early in August and this time of year was chosen because it is the quietest in the library.

FUNERAL NOTICE.
The funeral of Lester McDougall will be held from the family residence, 825 South Clay avenue, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

MRS. EMMA ROBB POST DIED RECENTLY AT ST. LOUIS HOME

Deceased Was a Daughter of the Late David Robb Long, a Jacksonville Resident—Her Husband, Henry M. Post, Died a Year Since

The friends of Miss Emma Robb, as she was known here, Mrs. Henry M. Post, as she was known in St. Louis, will hear with regret that she has gone on before.

It need hardly be said that she was the daughter of the late David Robb of Jacksonville, and a sister of the first Mrs. Wm. Brown.

Mrs. John Gordon, a cousin, has kindly sent the following beautiful tribute to Mrs. Post, issued as a "Supplement to the Bulletin of the First Congregational church of St. Louis" for the week of July 11, 1915:

A soul of rare beauty and winsomeness was hers which passed from our midst on the morning of July 3d, when Mrs. Emma Robb Post left us after a sickness of only three days. Her funeral was held from her late residence, 5678 Cabanne avenue on Monday morning, July 5th, the minister of the First Church officiating, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Green, soloist. She was laid to rest by the side of her husband, the late Henry M. Post, who preceded her a little more than a year ago.

Mrs. Post will be gratefully remembered by a large company of friends, to whom, in her own quiet way, she has greatly endeared herself. Her unassuming friendliness led her to seek out those who were sick or in need of encouragement. Among her intimate family she was loved for the greatness of her heart. Suffering or distress always evoked in her quick and active sympathy. No one who ever asked for food at her door was turned away empty and those in ear of assistance always found in her a ready listener, and a sure response.

Her life revolved about two centers, her home and her church. In both these circles she will be sorely missed. Her services to our church were of the unobtrusive, but most helpful sort. Our Women's Organizations found in her a most faithful worker, who could always be counted on to do her share, and a little more. It has been remarked since her death, that no one in the whole church made more calls among our people than did Mrs. Post. We shall sorely miss her help as we go out next fall to possess our new field.

She was a true Christian, whose life as well as her words bore testimony to the sincerity of her profession. She carried the heavy load of life burdens with a cheerful word and patient smile. It was good to have known her, and to have had the inspiration of her life in our midst. The influence of such a life can never die.

The whole congregation would extend to Mrs. Post's three daughters and to her only son, their most heartfelt sympathy in this sudden bereavement. At the same time we feel that they are to be congratulated upon the enduring possession of the memory of such a mother which will remain for them a constant inspiration to great hearted service, and real friendliness as long as they shall continue to live.

NEW 1916 HUDSON CAR HERE

I received a car load of 1916 cars Wednesday and am ready for demonstrations.

R. T. Cassell, Hudson dealer for Morgan and Scott counties.

TRYING TO SET ASIDE DEED.
Master in Chancery John F. Clark was busy Thursday afternoon taking testimony in case of Elizabeth Taylor et al vs. Julius Ribelin et al. The case is an effort to set aside a deed given by David L. Ribelin to Julius Ribelin.

Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Margaret Lewis are daughters of David L. Ribelin and Julius Ribelin is a son. There also are some grandchildren interested with Julius Ribelin. The effort on the part of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Lewis is to show that David L. Ribelin was not capable of transacting business at the time the deed was made. The parties come from the vicinity of Murrayville and there was a number of witnesses to testify.

RENEWS FORD CONTRACT.
C. N. Priest has returned from St. Louis where he went to close his contract with the Ford company for the coming year. Mr. Priest says the company is planning for a still greater business and expects an unprecedented demand not only for Ford cars but for Ford tractors as well. The tractor which is to be on the market late this fall will sell at a price somewhere from $200 to $250 and will be of a type different from anything now on the market. E. R. Frost, who was recently at the Ford factory, saw tractors used for demonstrating purposes, hauling several heavy trucks at one time.

TO VISIT EXPOSITION.
Mrs. J. C. Fairbank of Grove street and her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Smith of Westminster street expect to leave Tuesday on a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition. They will visit Mrs. Fairbank's son Edward at Sierra Madre and before returning home will visit the exposition at San Diego and other points of interest in the far west.
